to Hyde Park corner, where it entered the park, passed along the popular drive to Marble Arch. Emerging from the park, it crossed and followed Edgeware Road to Oxford and Cambridge Terraces and turned up these wide thoroughfares, on either side of which throughout their length of half a mile were unbroken stretches of temporarily erected stands filled to their capacity with black garbed hu manity.

Uniform Mourning.

By arrangements between the Westminster City Council and the Paddington Borough Council the official signs of mourning along the route were uni-form. Venetian masts, with laurel wreaths at their tops, had been erected at intervals. The public showed less unanimity in their selection of signs

An officer of the headquarters staff, mounted, headed the procession with the hands of the Household Cavalry. The Territorials and Colonials came just behind the hands, then other volunteer corps, the Honorable Artillery Company, officers of the Indian resiments in their picturesque uniforms and turbans, followed by detachments of foot guards, engineers, garrison, field and horse artillery, cavalry of the line and regiments of Household Cavalry.

The Royal Marine Infantry and Artillery and naval representatives came next, with the military attaches of the foreign embassies; the officers of the field marshals and bands playing solumn funeral marches. The great officers of the royal house of England were headed by the earl marshal, the Duke of Norfolk, and followed by a noncommissioned officer of the Household Cavairy bearing the royal standard. The King rode between the German Emperor and the Duke of Connaught, all in brilliant uniforms, and next in all in brilliant uniforms, and next in line was the group of rulers, heirs to the thrones, princes of great state and special ambassadors,

Order of Cortege.

Order of Cortege.

The members of the royal house on horseback fell back, followed in this order: first "ile, the Duke of Connaught, King George, Emperor William. Second, King Heakon of Norway, King George of Greece, King Algonso of Spain. Third, King Ferdinand of Julgaria, King Frederick of Denmark. Ging Manuel of Portugal. Fourth, rince Yussuf Zyyedin, the heir aparent of Turkey; King Albert of Belium, Archduke Francis Ferdinand, "eir to the throne of Austria-Hungary. Fifth. Prince Sadanaru Fushimi, of "apan; Grand Duke Michael, of Russia; he Duke of Sparta, who is Crown rince of Greece, and Crown Prince 'erdinand of Roumania. Sixth, Prince Henry of Prussia, representing the German Navy; Prince Charles of Sweden. Prince Henry of Holland, the Duke of Saxe-Coburg Gotha, Crown Prince of Greece, and Crown Prince Alexander of Servia. Seventh, Frince Mohammed All, Said Pasha Zuifkar, Watson Pasha, of Egypt; the Sultan of Zanzibar.

Then followed the princely and ducal

Then followed the princely and ducal

Then followed the princely and ducat representatives of a dozen German states, the members of the English royal family, the Duke de Alencon and Prince Bovaradel, of Slam.

The mounted group was followed by Iwelve state carriages. The first was occupied by the Queen Mother Alexandra, the Russian Dowager Empress Marle, the princess royal, and the Princess Victoria. The second carriage contained Queen Mary of England, Queen Mand, of Norway, the Duke of Conwall, heir to the British throne, and Princess Mary.

The next four carriages carried royal The next four carriages carried royal Addies and ladies-in-waiting. The seventh carried Prince Tasal Tao, of China, and his suite.

The ighth carriage was drawn by a squad of bluejackets. Immediately behind walked the King, with the German Emperor at his right and the late King's brother, the Duke of Connaught, on his left, The clergy who were to conduct the service were in the chapet when the cortege arrived. They were the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Archbishop of York, the Archbishops of Winchester and Oxford and the Dean of Winchester and Oxford and the Dean of Winchester and Oxford and the Dean of the Garter.

The casket was placed on a purple catafalque before the altar, which was a fairly buried in floral pieces. As the minute guns, boomed and bells tolled the casket, borne on the shouleders of the catafalque. The Lord Chamberlain and the Lord Steward took positions at the right of the catafalque.

m. Services at Windsor, thindsor, May 20.—It was a bitter clier day when the body of Queen btoris was borne up the hill to the dieval Chapel at St. George's. Tothe castle gates at Windsor deed to receive the casket of the state. Wheney with the green of an and to receive the casket or the station the Edward with the green of an Irish spring on the trees and grass athin massive walls. The gray towers and battlements, over which the Irish Jack was flying at half-mast, the extrest below was a seething mass of people in black, with a lane kept people in black, with a denoted to receive the casket of the significant Edward with the green of an iglish spring on the trees and grass within massive walls. The gray towers and battlements, over which the inion Jack was flying at half-mast.

the station the body of the minarta, was again placed on a gun carriage, and the procession was reformed with the addition of the ambassadors, min-isters and other representatives of is impossible to be well, simply possible, if the bowels are con pated. Waste products, poisonous bstances, must be removed from a body at least once each day, or ere will be trouble. The dose of yer's Pills is small, only one pill bedtime. All vegetable.

One Pill

Every Item in the Store at a

Reduced Price.

or man Emperor at his right and the late King's brother, the Duke of Connaught, on his left. The clergy who were to conduct the service were in the chaper when the cortege arrived. They were the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Archbishop of York, the Archbishops of Winchester and Oxford and the Dean of Windsor, the three latter, respectively, the prelate, chancellor and registrar of the Garter.

The casket was placed on a purple catafalque before the altar, which was fairly burted in floral pleces. As the minute guns, boomed and bells tolled the casket, borne on the shouleders of grenadler guards, was placed on the catafalque. The Lord Chamberlain and the Lord Steward took positions at the right of the catafalque. The three carriages following carried persons-in-waiting.

Simple Services.

From Paddington Station the royal ain carried the coffin and mourners and with officials and foreign representatives. Bluejackets dragged the gun carriage through a line of purple to St. George's Chapel, and there simple services were said by the Archilshops of Canterbury and York, assisted by other prelates. King George, with Alexandra on his arm, walked uphe nave behind the coffin, with ferman Emperor and Queen Mary folowing.

During the services the widowed meen moved to the foot of the ittafalquo, and knelt, and just before the coffin was fowered to the crypting George placed upon it a royal andard.

Several of the royal mourners, inding Archduke Francis Ferdinand Austria, and Prince Charles, of weden, left London to-night, but all ar reigning monarchs remained and sh King and Queen had another this dinger party at Buckinshand the caffic which the Garter king-ayt-arms advanced to the altar and spoke as follows:

"Foresmuch as placed on the catafalque. The Lord Steward took positions at the right of the catafalque.

King George, as the chief mourner, stood at the head of the casket. His Magesty's bodyguard of gentlemen-of-arms stood at the left of the charket left of the catafalque.

King George, as the chief mourner, stood at the head of the casket. His Magesty's bodyguard of gentlemen-of-arms stood at the left of the chief mourner, stood at the head of the casket. His Magesty's bodyguard of gentlemen-of-arms stood at the left of the catafalque.

King George, as the chief mourner, stood at the head of the casket. His Magesty's bodyguard of gentlemen-of-arms stood at the left of the catafalque.

Kang George, as the chief mourner, stood at the head of the casket. His Magesty's bodyguard of gentlemen-of-arms stood at the left of the catafalque.

Kang George, as the chief mourner, stood at the head of the casket. His Magesty's bodyguard of gentlemen-of-arms stood at the left of the catafalque.

Kang George as the chief the pict of the and into St. George's Chapel.

From the railway station to sh King and Queen had another tollows:

"Forasmuch as it hath pleased in the park.

"Forasmuch as it hath pleased in the park.

"Almighty God to take out of this life and the park of the park of the park.

Saug a hymn.

"Montree in the park of the park of the park of the park.

"Forasmuch as it hath pleased in the park.

Saug a hymn.

Montree in the park of the park.

Saug a hymn.

Montree in the park of the pa the faith, Emperor of India and sover-eign of the most noble Order of the Garter, let us humbly beseech Al-

THE WEATHER.

Forecast: Virginia—Partiy cloudy saturday; showers in the morning; showers Sunday; light to moderate south winds.

North Carolinia—Showers saturday and Sunday; moderate south winds.

CONDITIONS YESTERDAY.

It S.A. M. temperature.

Wind, direction Southeast Wind, velocity 10 moderate south winds which velocity 10 moderate south winds.

Wind, velocity 10 moderate south winds.

Weather Cloudy Weather Cloudy Weather Cloudy 12 noon temperature up to 5 P. M. temperature up to 5 New York's Temperature up to 5 New Y

MINIATURE ALMANAC.
May 21, 1910
dises... 4:57 HIGH TIDE.
sets.... 7:15 Morning... 3:59 Sun rises..., 4:57 Sun sets..., 7:15 Moon sets..., 3:14 Moon sets...,

and most excellent monarch, our sovereign lord, George, now, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, defender of the faith, Emperor of India and sovereign of most noble Order of the Garter. God save the King."

An answering murmur of "God save the King" arose from the assemblage.

The services were conducted by Rev. J. J. Gravatt, rector of Holy Trinity, assisted by Rev. Angus Crawford, Rev. S. A. Wallis, Rev. Hubert H. Barber and Rev. D. Campbell Meares. piness, the most high, most mighty

"Say, Mister, which is yours?"

sidering the material. It's light weight and made for these Spring days.

The low one is high in quality and

They're the Berry Shoe-now

If you're one of the thousands who swear by the "Hanan" has every good point that your feet can appreciate. $3.50, $4 and $5.

$3.50 to $5.

Shoe, here they are-$6 and $6.50.

The high one is low in price con-

An answering murmur of oon save, the King' arose from the assemblage. The Archbishop of Canterbury pro-nounced the solemn benediction, after which the Bishop of Winchester and he knelt before the altar in a moment's silent prayer. As the clergy rose to their feet the hush was broken and the procession withdrew from the chapel in the order of its entrance. The body of Edward VII, remained before the altar later to find a permanent resting place in the royal tomb house in Albert Memorial Chapel.

Impressively Observed.

Ottawa, Ont., May 20.—The King's funeral was impressively observed today in the capital. At 1 o'clock 2,000 city militia paraded on the square, facing the Parliament buildings, with Earl Grey, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Cabinet ministers and the militia head quarters staff in the centre, and thousands of citizens, most of them in mourning dress, looking on. At 1:30 o'clock the whole industrial life of the capital came to a complete standstill for three minutes. No sound was heard but the tolling of the church bells

Services in Toronto.

Toronto, Ont., May 20.—Memorial services to the late King were held today in nearly every town and village of Ontarlo. In Toronto, business was practically suspended from early morning. At 8 o'clock every train on the Canadian Pacific Railroad and for Grand Trunk Railway stopped, and for

Memorial Service at Holy Trinity to England's Great Ruler.

While the purple light of parting day While the purple light of parting day stole into the chancel of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church yesterday the services in memory of King Edward VII. of England were closed by the recessional, "Now the Laborer's Task Is O'er." With impressive solemnity, at the hour corresponding to that of the funeral service in London, many of the clergy in attendance on the 125th annual session of the Episcopal Council of Virginia, attendance on the 125th annual session of the Episcopal Council of Virginia, together with a large assemblage of Richmond people, some of them of British birth, paid their impressive tribute to the dead sovereign. During the rendition of "The Dead March in Saul" the congregation rose out of respect and remained standing until that majestic dirge died away in silence. After several appropriate hymns had been sung and a portion of the burial service had been read, Rt, Rev, Arthur Selden Lloyd, Bishop-Coadjutor of Virginia, made a brief address on the late King.

King. "Edward VII. was one of the most "Edward VII. was one of the most marvelous men in history," he said, "but he achieved great things so easily that men have not yet come to take his full measure. As a character dominated by self-control, he stood the peer of any man the world ever knew. When the crown came to him he was past sixty years of age. His life had known no restraint of responsibility; he had been free to do as he pleased, and yet he assumed the mighty responhe had been free to do as he pleased, and yet he assumed the mighty responsibility of his empire and was a magnificent ruler from the first to the last.

Worked for Pence.

"When he took up the sceptre he found his people excited over scores of perplexing questions; he found other nations in delicate relations with his nations in delicate relations with his own, alt ready to explode. Yet he wrought out of all this confusion the spiendid result—peace. As a peace-maker among his own people and among the nations of the earth he was a great King. It was well said of him that in England he was a King among foreign states. Thus it passed through the purple-draped streets to the castle and into St. George's Chapel.

Reference was made to the dead king in the prayers offered.

The music was most impressive. It was directed by Arthur Serivenor, director of the Holy Trinity Church choir, assisted by R. C. Sainsbury, musical director of the choir of the Church of the Holy Comforter, and Ben J. Potter, musical director of Monumental Epismond in the prayers offered.

assisted by Rev. Angus Crawford. Rev. S. A. Wallis, Rev. Hubert H. Barber and Rev. D. Campbell Meares.
For the musical part of the service, the hymns, "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand," "Oh God, Our Help in Ages Past," "Biest Be the Tie That Binds," "Peace, Perfect Peace," "Now the Laborer's Task Is O'er." and the Ninetieth Psalm were sung. The "Dead March In 'Saul'" was exquisitely rendered.
The vestments and hangings were all purple. The chancel was decorated with white and purple aster, the pulpit being draped with the British flag.

Suicide Had Been Named as Corespondent in a Divorce

London, May 26,—Behind the death of Captain Claude Champion de Crespigny, who committed suicide, is a story of infatuation for a prominent young American woman, who, since her marriage two years ago, minutes. Memorial services were held in the park. A choir of 500 voices and hymn.

Montreal Pays Tribute.

Montreal Pays Tribute.

Montreal May 20.—With church services, the trooping of city militia, 5,000 at leonmercial institutions, Montreal to the dead King, all commercial institutions, Montreal to the dead King. After the church services troops assorbed on the great campus of Mc-Gill University, where Colonel Gordon read the proclamation of the accession of King George.

St. Johns, N. F. May 20.—A state memorial service to day in the Anglical can Cathedral was the last official can Cathedral was that he believed the President should and Depew, Mayor Gaynor, former Ambassador Choate, General Walter Howe, Rear-Admiral Leutze, Colonel Hugh Scott, of West Point, and many others.

REAL SENSATION

State Offices Closed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch]
Raleigh, May 20.—The State offices were all closed to-day in honor of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independance, of which this is the 135th anniversary.

FOR DYSPEPSIA take Horsford's Acid Phosphate Relieves the continued sense of hunger, sick headacht, naurea and sour stress and to that I adhere."

that he believed the President should take up the Canadian negotiations, and after that it would be time for Congress to act.

Mr. Payne said that he had conferred with members of the House who had signed Mr. Amer's pettion, and some of them said they didn't know what they signed, while others were all closed to-day in honor of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independent and some of them said they didn't know what they signed, while others were all closed to-day in honor of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independent and some of them said they didn't care anything about it one way or the other.

"So far as I was connecrned myself." concluded Mr. Payne, "I did not propose by my vote in the tarriff in any way during this session of Consess and to that I adhere."

Hunyadi a

Natural Laxative Quickly Relieves:-

Biliousness, Sick Headache, Stomach Disorders,

CONSTIPATION

In EMERGENCY Try Hunyadi János NATURAL APERIENT WATER. Avoid Substitutes

Richmond Training School for Kindergartners will be held on Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the Virginia Mechanics' Institute.

ent of city schools, will make the address to the graduating classes.

The junior and senior classes will sing several songs under the direction of Miss Heien Stockdell, who has charge of the musical training of the school. Among the selections sung will be one composed by Miss Stockdell herself, "When Daddy Comes Home at Twilight."

The past of the class will be reviewed briefly by the historian, Miss Witt, and its future revealed in the prophecy by Miss Mason.

Dr. F. C. Woodward, chairman of the board of trustees, will deliver the diplomas to the members of the senior and third year classes presented by diplomas to the members of the senior and third year classes presented by Miss L. S. Coleman, principal of the training school.

The students who have successfully completed the two-year course required in kindergarten theory and practice, psychology, English, music, nature study and drawing, and may now be qualified as kindergartners, are:

Miss Mary Garland Todd, Richmond: Miss Lucy Temple Witt, Richmond: Miss Lucy Temple Witt, Rich-

Miss Mary Garland Todd, Richmond: Miss Lucy Temple Witt, Richmond: Miss Caroline Vandiver, Ashland: Miss Margaret Brundige Morton, Richmond: Miss Annie Norrell Elmore, Richmond: Miss Nellie Price Morton, Richmond: Miss Mary Gray Harrison, Petersburg: Miss Nelle Coalter McCluer, Bon Air; Miss Lucia Brodnax Owen, Richmond, and Mrs. Katherine Howard Hoffman, Richmond.

Those students completing the full three-year course and therefore qualified to fill the position of director of a kindergarten are:

rison. Petersburg: Miss Nelle Coalter McCluer. Bon Alr; Miss Lucia Brodiax Owen, Richmond, and Mrs. Katherine Howard Hoffman, Richmond.

Those students completing the full three-year course and therefore qualified to fill the position of director of a kindergarten are:

Miss Hattle Belle Gresham, Tappahannock: Miss Julia Birchett Andrews Richmond: Miss Lucia Brodnax Owen, Richmond.

TOTES TO CHANGE

NAME OF CHANGE

Continued From First Page.

E. Brown, Missouri Conference; Rev. J. T. Daves, North Georgia Conference; Rev. G. C. Rankin, North Texas Conference; Rev. G. B. Winion, Oklahoma Conference; Rev. H. K. Boyer, Western North Carolina Conference; C. W. White, Florida Conference; C. W. White, Florida Conference; M. O. Hughes, Louisville Conference; W. R. Cole, Nashville, Tenn.; A. E. Ransom Nashville, Tenn., Conference; J. S. Western Nashville, Tenn., Conference; J. T. Mediock, South Carolina Conference; J. S. Western Nashville, Tenn., Con Nashville, Tenn., Conference: J. S. Weaver, Nashville, Tenn., Conference: J. T. Metlock, South Carolina Confer-

Worth, Tex.; Mrs. E. B. Chappell. Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Daisy Davies, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Hume R. Steele. Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Mary N. Moore. Athens, Ala.; Mrs. Lee Britt, Norfolk, the North Carolina Lord's Day Alli-ance of the United States, briefly ad-dressed the conference. The report recommending that $10,000 be pointed for special articles in the Nashville Christian Advocate during the next four years was adopted. The report of the committee on missions co-ordinating the various departments heretofore separate was adopted.

OBITUARY

Death of Father and Son.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch,]
Pungcicague, Va., May 20.—Capiain Eghert G. Evans and Marvin K. Evans, his son both died Wednesday afternoon about 5 o'clock in Philadelphia.
About two weeks ago Marvin Evans, a young man about twenty years of age, and the son of Capiain E. G.
Evans, was badly scalded in the Cape
Charles boat, and his father and mother were wired to come to Philadelphia at once. Capiain Evans was not well when he left home, and while in Philadelphia, by the bedside of his son, he grew worse.

Their remains arrived yesterday afterngon on the N. Y., P. and N. train, and were carried to the former home of Capiain Evans, Harbortom, Va.

The funeral of the father and son was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Harborton Methodist Church, the service's being conducted by Rev. W. L.
Murphy.

Funeral of Capiain Williams.

Murphy.

Funeral of Captain Williams.

The remains of Captain Charles U. Williams, who died on Friday, May 13: in San Francisco, Cal., are expected to arrive in Richmond this afternoon. The funeral services will be held from the residence of his Son-in-law, W. Brydon Tennant, 932 West Franklin Street, on Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The interment will be in Hollywood Cemetery, and will be private. Following are the pall-bearcrs:

Active—Coleman Wortham, Charles O. Saville, John Howard, Charles Bruce, John D. Potts, Alexander H. Sands, Charles E. Bolling, Lewis C. Williams, Charles E. Bolling, Lewis C. Williams, Honorary—Thomas Atkinson, Judge S. B. Witt, Judge John H. Ingrait, Judge R. Carter Scott, General Henry T. Douglas, Colonel Archer Anderson, Colonel W. Miles Cary, Captain W. Gordon McCabe, Dr. Joseph A. White, James N. Boyd, Thomas M. Rutherfoord, E. G. Leigh, Jr., Thomas Waters, Captain Herbert Bryant, John W. Burruss.

Captain Lybrant Evans.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

(Special Lybrant Evans.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Pungoteague, Va., May 20.—Captain Lybrant Evans, one of the most highly respected men on Eastern Shore, while returning from John Hopkins Hospital, died on the boat on his way to his home, Harborton, Va. He was thirty-four years of age, and leaves a widow and three smail children.

The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. L. Murphy, and the interment was in the Episcopal Cemetery.

by his pastor, Rev. W. L. Murphy, and the interment was in the Episcopal Cemeters.

Mes. Mamie Sutton.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Staunton, Va., May 20.—Mrs. Mamie Sutton, wife of Guy Sutton, and daughter of the late Captain John N. Ople, died at Huntington, W. Va., last night, after an operation for appendicitis, aged thirty-four years. The interment will be in Staunton to-morrow.

Mrs. Virginia Shelton.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Fredericksburg, Va., May 20.—Mrs. Virginia Shelton, widow of Richard Shelton, of this city, died here last night at the home of her son-in-law. Captain Thos. Larkin, after a long illness aged seventy-two years. Sine is survived by six children.

Mrs. Aristha Guy.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Pungoteague, Va., May 20.—Mrs. Arintha J. Guy, aged seventy-one, died at the home of Captain John Drummond, and the interment was in Holly Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. W. L. Murphy, pastor of the Methodist Church.

George Sheets.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Staunton, Va., May 20.—George.

DEATHS

BIATKE—Died, at St. Agnes' Hespital, Baitimore, Md., May 19, 1910, at 1:95 A. M., JENNIE KEEGAN HATKE, wife of Louis B, Hatke. Funeral from Sacred Heart Cathe-dral SATURDAY, May 21, 1910, 10 A. M.

POLLARD—Died. Friday. May 20, 1910, at 5:20 A. M., at the residence of his parents. 422 North Thirty-third Street, ROBERT ALVIN, only child of Robert T. and Nettle W. Poliard, aged nine years and three months.

The funeral will take place SUNDAY, May 22, at 4 o'clock, from the above residence. Interment in Oakwood.

A Cable Ad. Every Day

Piano Men, Friends and Visitors to Richmond,

We extend to you a cordial invitation to make our salesrooms your headquarters. Consult our

Bureau of Information

It will be our pleasure to afford every facility that will add to your comfort and pleasure while

Cable Piano Co.

day afternoon for burial at Spring Hill Cemetery.

Thomas J. Millard.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Bristol, Va., May 20.—Thomas J., Millard, a pioneer of Bristol, died here to-day in the seventy-seventh year of his age.

W. B. Smithson.

W. B. Smithson.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

South Hill, Va., May 20.—W. B. Smithson died at his home in this place last night, after a lingering illness. He was sixty years old. and leaves a wife and three children—one son and two daughters—and four sisters. The funeral services will be conducted from the home to-morrow afternoon by the Revs. Hart and Carson.

FUNERAL NOTICE

WILLIAMS—The funeral of the late CHARLES URQUHART WILLIAMS, who died in San Francisco, Cal., May 13, 1910, will be held at the residence of his son-in-law, W. Brydon Ten-nant, 932 West Franklin Street, on SUNDAY, May 22, 1910, at 4:30 o'clock P. M.

HEALTH INSURANCE

The man who insures his life is wise for his family.

The man who insures his health is wise both for his family and himself.

You may insure health by guarding it. It is worth guarding. At the first attack of disease, which generally approaches through the LIVER and manifests itself in innumerable ways

Promptness & Efficiency Important Factors

to meet the requirements of business men, firms and individuals in the transaction of daily banking business Capital and Surplus, $1,500,000.

We solicit your account. Write for booklet, "Banking by Mail,"

Bulletin No. 18

University College of Medicine

THE FIRST MAN who was ever treated in the clinic of the University College of Medicine had an allment that incapacitated him for labor. He was a helpless burden on the community. Some one had to support him and some one had to take care of him. The operation was performed by the surgeon without any charge. He was boarded and nursed for a few weeks at the expense of the University College of

That was seventeen years ago. He is now a bread-winner, and has been since that time. Count up what he has produced in seventeen years. Contrast it with what he was costing as an invalid, and see if the University College of Medicine rendered the community any service in its clinic that day. Multiply this service by the THREE HUNDRED SIMILAR SERVICES performed in our hospital clinic each year since then; add to this the somewhat lesser service rendered without compensation 5,000 times a year for seventeen years in our Free Dispensary, and you obtain one of the views of the value to Richmond of the UNI-VERSITY COLLEGE OF MEDICINE.

Others Are Helping to Rebuild It. Will You?

Look for the Bulletins.